

SUPPORTING A FAMILY

One night, Johnson and Dicky chatted in a pub.

Johnson started the conversation: 'In such depressing economy, it's really hard to raise a family.'

Dicky asked Johnson how many children he had and his answer was four.

Dicky replied: 'Yes, I agree that's really a burden to raise four children.'

Johnson sighed: 'To raise four children is hard, but I think to raise their four mothers is even harder.'

POOR NEIGHBOUR

One afternoon, 5-year-old Bobo ran to her mother and said: 'Mama, the family living beside us must be very poor!'

Her mother asked: 'How do you know that they are poor?'

Bobo answered: 'Oh, the small child has swallowed a one-dollar coin, however, her whole family kicked up a big fuss over this.'

LUGGAGE IS FREE OF CHARGE

Rambo carried 3 big pieces of luggage and called for a taxi. He asked the taxi driver:

'What is the fare to the airport?'

The taxi driver replied: '$70, sir.'

Rambo raised another question: 'Then how much do I need to pay for the luggage?'

The taxi driver answered: 'Oh, they are free of charge, sir.'

Rambo immediately said: 'Then, please carry my luggage to the airport, I'll walk to the airport myself, thank you!'
